Tobacco Valley Teachers Federal Credit Union Participates in “Backpack for Kids” Day

August 21, 2017 - Enfield, CT - The Tobacco Valley Teachers Federal Credit Union (TVTFCU) recently participated in the “Backpack for Kids Day” sponsored by the Educational Resources for Children, Inc. (ERFC) , both located in Enfield, CT. Volunteers gathered at St. Patrick’s Church to hand out hundreds of donated backpacks filled with school supplies to area families in need.

“We collected donations of school supplies from our members and staff which were used to fill the backpacks that were handed out. The credit union was honored to participate in this community event.,” said Lori Triba, CEO/Manager of the Tobacco Valley Teachers Federal Credit Union. “We are always pleased to give back and help whenever we can.”

“The ERFC does a wonderful job coordinating this event each year. The children were so excited to receive a backpack. It is a pleasure supporting this organization and helping our community. ” added Nina Chrisanthopoulos, Marketing Manager for the credit union who volunteered at the event.
